

Flower Shop in Central Auckland

This flower shop is situated in the central area of Auckland and boasts a rich history of 26 years, with the current owner successfully managing it for over 7 years. The shop has a well-established online presence with its own website and a dedicated following on Instagram, contributing to its consistent annual operations. Currently operated by a single owner, the shop is open for business five days a week.

Despite its long-standing history and stability, the flower shop still holds significant untapped potential. For those aspiring to start their own venture, this presents an excellent opportunity. Being a florist and running a shop surrounded by the beauty of flowers can bring a unique sense of fulfillment compared to many other professions. Experience is not a prerequisite, as the current owner is willing to provide comprehensive training. All that's needed is a love for flowers and creative ideas - that's sufficient to embark on this exciting journey.
