Thriving Established Physio Practice - $350k Return

Two busy physiotherapy practices are for sale in adjacent suburbs of North Auckland, providing a solid and profitable return for a new owner. The profit for two working proprietors across both businesses totals $350,000, or for one working owner employing another physio, a $250,000 return – a great return for an investment of $295,000.

The two practices have long established clientele and the existing owners are prepared to assist with a long term transition on a contracted basis.

The skilled team at the two clinics provide physiotherapy, acupuncture, manipulative physiotherapy and sports physiotherapy, along with a range of specialist skills and procedures to assist with full physical and physiological recovery from injuries, falls or chronic conditions.
