Franklin Territory for SALE – asking $350K

A rare opportunity to acquire a scalable media business with recurring income and expansion opportunities already identified. Built upon a 15-year proven business model that operates both here in NZ and in the USA, the vendor is seeking to sell their exclusive lifetime territory rights for the Franklin region at a competitive price on a tight deadline.

8 Key reasons why this might be right for you:

- Annualised contracted revenue with signed clients on books (earn from day 1).
- Low overhead owner-operator model.
- No staff or premises are required.
- Work at your pace when you want, not when you have to.
- Significant growth potential.
- The ability to hold out direct competition through market saturation.
- Full training and handover provided.
- $60,000 in hardware included.

The current business operates remotely with the owner working on a part-time basis and generating a healthy income and building a strong profile within the territory.

With many A-list local customers already signed up, the business is currently operating with plenty of scope for significant further growth by expanding to more locations and bringing on more advertisers to join the network.

Previous experience in the industry is not absolutely necessary as a husband and wife team, or someone with a "can do" and outgoing personality who can follow the proven provided training, has proven to deliver exceptional results.

Don't Miss Out – It ticks all the boxes for a Stress-Free Money Maker!
