

Fully Managed Specialised HR Company, Sales Circa $2.6M p.a

Established over 20 years ago, the company is considered one of the most reliable and professional HR service providers within New Zealand. Along with the company's market leading brand, the business has a unique process for securing personnel and procuring customers, providing a clear point of difference in contrast to competitors.

Business has been consistently profitable, generating average normalised EBITDA of circa $360,000 over three years, and has demonstrated an ability to generate cash flows with minimal working capital funding requirements. Led by a manager and strong team, the business is fully managed, with minimal input from the owner in day-to-day operations.

The company has invested substantial time and capital into solidifying its position and reputation as a market leader. With extensive experience, a reputation second-to-none in New Zealand, and an established client base, the business maintains a highly defensible position.

A rare opportunity for an astute buyer to purchase a high cashflow business or an ideal opportunity for an existing company within the industry to acquire this business and enhance their market position.
